

Lileith Roberts, Ph.D., MSP, MSN, BSN, RN
Assistant Professor

Education

Degree	Institution	Completed
Post-graduate degree (MSP)	Grand Canyon University	2022
Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.)	Barry University	2018
Master of Science of Nursing (MSN)	Walden University	2013
Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN)	Northern Caribbean University	2008

Teaching Interests/Focus:

Dr. Roberts has taught didactic, clinical, and simulation labs for health assessment, foundations, and medical-surgical. She is responsible for teaching and supervising nursing students along with the supervision of students at clinical training facilities. This includes imparting cognitive, affective, and psychomotor skills appropriate for the practice of professional nursing.

Clinical Interests/focus: Medical Surgical

Research Interests/focus: Nursing students and health care personnel experience emotional and psychological posttraumatic conditions.