

Donna Williams-Newman, Ph.D., DNP, MSN, RN
Associate Professor

Education History

Degree	Institution	Completed
Ph.D. in nursing	Barry University	2020
Doctor of Nursing Practice (DNP)	University of Miami	2011
Masters of Science in Nursing (MSN)/nursing education	University of the West Indies	2004
Registered Midwife	University Hospital of the West Indies	1995
Registered General Nursing	University Hospital of the West Indies	1990

Teaching Interests/Focus

Dr. Williams-Newman teaches maternity nursing, leadership, ethics, the Business of Healthcare, and the Profession of Nursing.

Clinical Interests/Focus

She is interested the in care of the pregnant, laboring, and delivered woman and her newborn baby.

Research Interests/Focus

Dr. Williams-Newman's research interests are related to cultural diversity in healthcare, simulation application and benefits in healthcare education, and social media usage in nursing education.