Teaching Interests/Focus

Dr. Bittner has been teaching and mentoring nursing, medical, and allied health students for many years. Before NSU, she taught online classes for nurse practitioners.

Clinical Interests/Focus

Dr. Bittner's clinical specialization is emergency medicine. She is also interested in functional medicine and how people can take an active part in staying well. She has been a nurse practitioner in multiple emergency departments in Dade and Palm Beach county since 1995 and feels there is an opportunity to learn and grow in this specialty.

Research Interests/Focus

Her research interest is diversified and related to nurse practitioners in the emergency department as well as the lack of dental care in the ED.
