Joan, Frater-Clarke RN, MPH, MSN, ARNP

I obtained my Bachelor of Science degree in nursing from Barry University, Florida, a Masters of Public Health, a graduate certificate in Gerontology, and a Master's of Science degree in Nursing /Adult Nurse Practitioner from Florida International University, Florida.

My specialization is in Medical Surgical nursing, Adult Health Care, and Research.

I began my academic career teaching as an adjunct clinical professor at Nova Southeastern University, and then joining the faculty, as an Assistant Professor since 2009. I have been on different committees and I am currently the chair person on the Faculty Affairs Committee.

I am completing a doctoral degree in nursing education (EdD) at Nova Southeastern University.

My field of research is in adult education and development.
