

College of Nursing- Miami

Donna Williams-Newman DNP, MSN, Cert. P.A. RN

Dr. Donna Williams-Newman is a Registered Nurse/Midwife with 23 years of clinical and teaching practice. She has a Doctor of Nursing practice degree from the University of Miami, a Master of Science in nursing (education) degree (MSN), with distinction, from University of the West Indies School of Nursing, in addition to certifications in Public administration, Nursing and Midwifery.

She has taught in the MSN program at the University of Phoenix and the DNP (online) for Chamberlain College of Nursing. Her administrative experience is as Director of nursing/head of department at Knox Community College from 2001-2012, where she was instrumental in starting the BSN in 2005. She also lectured at all levels in this undergraduate program.

Her clinical experiences with a special focus on mother/baby were attained at Percy Junor Hospital and Hargreaves Memorial hospital, where she designed and implemented parent/child class for expecting parents and were awarded Nurse of the year in 2000. Dr. Williams-Newman is a member of the Sigma Theta Tau honor society of nursing.

As an internationally educated nurse she has written on the transition of internationally educated nurse into the United States of America. She is interested in cultural diversity, maternal health, and health disparity.